Standing Orders

Reviewed and updated – 3 July 2018

NB The term "Chairman" is used here to mean the Chairman of the Council, while "chairman" refers to the person actually chairing the meeting. (See Standing Order 3(m))
[The terms "Chairman", "chairman" and "councillor" are gender-neutral; the posts may be filled by a man or a woman.]

1. Rules of debate at meetings

- a Motions on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the chairman.
- b A motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
- c A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the chairman as withdrawn.
- d If a motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- e An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not negate the motion.
- f If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
- g An amendment shall not be considered unless early verbal notice of it is given at the meeting and, if requested by the chairman, is expressed in writing to the chairman.
- h A councillor may move an amendment to his own motion if agreed by the meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- i If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the chairman.
- j Subject to Standing Order 1(k) below, only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the chairman.
- k One or more amendments may be discussed together if the chairman considers this to be expedient but each amendment shall be voted upon separately.
- l A councillor may not move more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion.
- m The mover of an amendment has no right of reply at the end of debate on it.
- n Where a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right of reply either at the end of debate of the first amendment or at the very end of debate on the final substantive motion immediately before it is put to the vote.

- o Unless permitted by the chairman, a councillor may speak once in the debate on a motion except:
  - i. to speak on an amendment moved by another councillor;
  - ii. to move or speak on another amendment if the motion has been amended since he last spoke;
  - iii. to make a point of order;
  - iv. to give a personal explanation; or
  - v. in exercise of a right of reply.

- p During the debate of a motion, a councillor may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation and the councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A councillor raising a point of order shall identify the Standing Order which he considers has been breached or specify the other irregularity in the proceedings of the meeting.

- q A point of order shall be decided by the chairman and his decision shall be final.

- r When a motion is under debate, no other motion shall be moved except:
  - i. to amend the motion;
  - ii. to proceed to the next business;
  - iii. to adjourn the debate;
  - iv. to put the motion to a vote;
  - v. to ask a person to be no longer heard or to leave the meeting;
  - vi. to refer a motion to a working group for consideration;
  - vii. to exclude the public and press;
  - viii. to adjourn the meeting; or
  - ix. to suspend particular standing order(s) excepting those which reflect mandatory statutory requirements.

- s Before an original or substantive motion is put to the vote, the chairman shall be satisfied that the motion has been sufficiently debated and that the mover of the motion under debate has exercised or waived his right of reply.

- t Excluding motions moved under Standing Order 1(r) above, the contributions or speeches by a councillor shall relate only to the motion under discussion and shall not exceed three minutes without the consent of the chairman.

2. Disorderly conduct at meetings

- a No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly. If this Standing Order is ignored, the chairman shall request such person(s) to moderate or improve their conduct.

- b If a person disregards the request of the chairman to moderate or improve their conduct, any councillor or the chairman may move that the person be no longer heard or excluded from the meeting. The motion, if seconded, shall be put to the vote without discussion.

- c If a resolution made under Standing Order 2(b) above is ignored, the chairman may take further reasonable steps to restore order or to progress the meeting. This may include temporarily suspending or closing the meeting.

3. Meetings generally

- a Meetings shall not take place in premises which at the time of the meeting are used for the supply of alcohol, unless no other premises are available free of charge or at a reasonable cost.
- b The minimum three clear days for notice of a meeting does not include the day on which notice was issued, the day of the meeting, a Sunday, a day of the Christmas break, a day of the Easter break or of a bank holiday or a day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning.
- c Meetings shall be open to the public unless their presence is prejudicial to the public interest by reason of the confidential nature of the business to be transacted or for other special reasons. The public's exclusion from part or all of a meeting shall be by a resolution which shall give reasons for the public's exclusion.
- d Members of the public may make representations, answer questions and give evidence at a Council meeting in respect of any matters relating to the performance of the Council's statutory functions, powers and obligations or an issue which specifically affects the Council's area or its residents.
- e The period of time designated for public participation at a meeting in accordance with Standing Order 3(d) above shall not exceed fifteen minutes unless directed by the chairman.
- f Subject to Standing Order 3(e) above, a member of the public shall not speak for more than three minutes.
- g A matter raised in accordance with Standing Order 3(d) above shall not require a response at the meeting nor start a debate on the issue. The chairman may direct that a written or oral response be given in due course.
- h A person who speaks at a meeting shall direct his comments to the chairman.
- i Only one person is permitted to speak at a time. If more than one person wants to speak, the chairman shall direct the order of speaking.
- j A person may not orally report or comment about a meeting as it takes place but otherwise may
  - a) film, photograph or make an audio recording of a meeting
  - b) use any other means for enabling persons not present to see or hear proceedings at a meeting as it takes place or later
  - c) report or comment on the proceedings in writing during or after a meeting or orally report or comment after the meeting.
- k The press shall be provided with reasonable facilities for the taking of their report of all or part of a meeting at which they are entitled to be present.
- l Subject to standing orders which indicate otherwise, anything authorised or required to be done by, to or before the Chairman may in his absence be done by, to or before the Vice-Chairman.
- m The Chairman, if present, shall preside at a meeting. If the Chairman is absent from a meeting, the Vice-Chairman, if present, shall preside. If both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman are absent from a meeting, a councillor as chosen by the councillors present at the meeting shall preside at the meeting.

- n Subject to a meeting being quorate (see Standing Order 3(s)), all questions at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of the councillors present and voting.
- o The chairman may give an original vote on any matter put to the vote, and in the case of an equality of votes may exercise his casting vote, whether or not he gave an original vote.
See Standing Orders 4(h) and (i) below for the different rules that apply in the election of the Chairman at the annual meeting of the Council.
- p Unless standing orders provide otherwise, voting on a question shall be by a show of hands. At the request of a councillor, the voting on any question shall be recorded so as to show whether each councillor present and voting gave his vote for or against that question. Such a request shall be made before moving on to the next item of business on the agenda.
- q The minutes of a meeting shall include an accurate record of the following:
  - i. the time and place of the meeting;
  - ii. the names of councillors present and absent;
  - iii. interests that have been declared by councillors;
  - iv. if there was a public participation session;
  - v. whether a councillor left the meeting when matters in which he declared an interest were being considered; and
  - vi. the resolutions made.
- r A councillor who has a disclosable pecuniary interest or another interest as set out in the Council's Code of Conduct in a matter being considered at a meeting is subject to statutory limitations or restrictions under the Code on his right to participate and/or vote on that matter.
- s No business may be transacted at a meeting unless a quorum of at least FOUR members of the Council are present.
- t If a meeting is or becomes inquorate no business shall be transacted and the meeting shall be closed. The business on the agenda for the meeting shall be adjourned to another meeting.
- u A Council meeting shall not exceed a period of two and a half hours.

4. Ordinary Council meetings

- a In an election year, the Annual Meeting of the Council shall be held on or within fourteen days following the day on which the newly elected councillors take office.
- b In a year which is not an election year, the Annual Meeting of the Council shall be held on such day in May as the Council may direct.
- c If no other time is fixed, the Annual Meeting of the Council shall take place at 7.30pm.

- d In addition to the Annual Meeting of the Council, at least three other ordinary meetings shall be held in each year on such dates and times as the Council directs.
- e The first business conducted at the Annual Meeting of the Council shall be the election of the Chairman and Vice-Chairman.
- f The Chairman, unless he has resigned or becomes disqualified, shall continue in office and preside at the Annual Meeting until he or his successor is elected.
- g The Vice-Chairman, if any, unless he resigns or becomes disqualified, shall hold office until immediately after the election of the Chairman at the next Annual Meeting of the Council.
- h In an election year, if the current Chairman has not been re-elected as a member of the Council, he shall preside at the meeting until a successor Chairman has been elected. The current Chairman shall not have an original vote in respect of the election of the new Chairman but must give a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes.
- i In an election year, if the current Chairman has been re-elected as a member of the Council, he shall preside at the meeting until a new Chairman has been elected. He may exercise an original vote in respect of the election of the new Chairman and must give a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes.
- j Following the election of the Chairman and Vice-Chairman at the Annual Meeting of the Council, the business of the annual meeting shall include:
  - i. In an election year, delivery by the Chairman, Vice-Chairman and councillors of their acceptance of office forms unless the Council resolves for this to be done at a later date. In a year which is not an election year, delivery by the Chairman and Vice-Chairman of their acceptance of office forms unless the Council resolves for this to be done at a later date;
  - ii. Confirmation of the accuracy of the minutes of the last meeting of the Council;
  - iii. Appointment of representatives to work with external bodies and arrangements for reporting back;
  - iv. Determining the time and place of ordinary meetings of the Council up to and including the next Annual Meeting.

The Council shall also set a timetable for considering the following issues:

- v. Review and adoption of appropriate Standing Orders and Financial Regulations;
- vi. Review of arrangements, including any charters and agency agreements, with other local authorities and review of contributions made to expenditure incurred by other local authorities;
- vii. Review of inventory of land and assets including buildings and office equipment;
- viii. Confirmation of arrangements for insurance cover in respect of all insured risks;
- ix. Review of the Council's and/or staff subscriptions to other bodies;
- x. Review of the Council's complaints procedure;
- xi. Review of the Council's procedures for handling requests made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Data Protection Act 1998;
- xii. Review of the Council's policy for dealing with the press/media;
- xiii. In an election year, to consider making arrangements with a view to the Council becoming eligible to exercise the general power of competence in the future.

5. Extraordinary meetings of the Council

- a The Chairman may convene an extraordinary meeting of the Council at any time, subject to the provisions of Standing Orders 3(a)-(c).
- b If the Chairman does not or refuses to call an extraordinary meeting of the Council within seven days of having been requested in writing to do so by two councillors, any two councillors may convene an extraordinary meeting of the Council. The public notice giving the time, place and agenda for such a meeting must be signed by the two councillors.

6. Previous resolutions

- a A resolution shall not be reversed within six months except either by a special motion, which requires written notice by at least 4 councillors to be given to the Proper Officer in accordance with Standing Order 8 below.
- b When a motion moved pursuant to standing order 6(a) above has been disposed of, no similar motion may be moved within a further six months.

7. Voting on appointments

- a Where more than two persons have been nominated for a position to be filled by the Council and none of those persons has received an absolute majority of votes in their favour, the name of the person having the least number of votes shall be struck off the list and a fresh vote taken. This process shall continue until a majority of votes is given in favour of one person. A tie in votes may be settled by the casting vote exercisable by the Chairman.

8. Motions for a meeting that require written notice to be given to the Proper Officer

- a A motion shall relate to the responsibilities Council and in any event shall relate to the performance of the Council's statutory functions, powers and obligations or an issue which specifically affects the Council's area or its residents.
- b No motion may be moved at a meeting unless it is on the agenda and the mover has given written notice of its wording to the Proper Officer at least 7 clear days before the meeting. See Standing Order 3(b) above for the meaning of 'clear days'.
- c The Proper Officer may, before including a motion on the agenda received in accordance with Standing Order 8(b) above, correct obvious grammatical or typographical errors in the wording of the motion.
- d If the Proper Officer considers the wording of a motion received in accordance with Standing Order 8(b) above is not clear in meaning, the motion shall be rejected until the mover of the motion resubmits it in writing to the Proper Officer so that it can be understood at least 5 clear days before the meeting. See Standing Order 3(b) above for the meaning of 'clear days'.

- e If the wording or subject of a proposed motion is considered improper, the Proper Officer shall consult with the Chairman or, as the case may be, the councillors who have convened the meeting, to consider whether the motion shall be included in the agenda or rejected.
- f Subject to Standing Order 8(e) above, the decision of the Proper Officer as to whether or not to include the motion on the agenda shall be final.
- g Motions received shall be recorded in a book for that purpose and numbered in the order that they are received.
- h Motions rejected shall be recorded in a book for that purpose with an explanation by the Proper Officer for their rejection.

9. Motions at a meeting that do not require written notice

- a The following motions may be moved at a meeting without written notice to the Proper Officer:
  - i. to correct an inaccuracy in the draft minutes of a meeting;
  - ii. to move to a vote;
  - iii. to defer consideration of a motion;
  - iv. to refer a motion to a working group;
  - v. to appoint a person to preside at a meeting;
  - vi. to change the order of business on the agenda;
  - vii. to proceed to the next business on the agenda;
  - viii. to require a written report;
  - ix. to appoint a working group and its members;
  - x. to extend the time limits for speaking;
  - xi. to exclude the press and public from a meeting in respect of confidential or sensitive information which is prejudicial to the public interest;
  - xii. to not hear further from a councillor or a member of the public;
  - xiii. to exclude a councillor or member of the public for disorderly conduct;
  - xiv. to temporarily suspend the meeting;
  - xv. to suspend a particular standing order (unless it reflects mandatory statutory requirements);
  - xvi. to adjourn the meeting; or
  - xvii. to close a meeting.

10. Management of information

See also standing order 20.

- a The Council shall have in place and keep under review, technical and organisational measures to keep secure information (including personal data) which it holds in paper and electronic form. Such arrangements shall include deciding who has access to personal data and encryption of personal data.
- b The Council shall have in place, and keep under review, policies for the retention and safe destruction of all information (including personal data) which it holds in paper and electronic form. The Council's retention policy shall confirm the period for which information (including personal data) shall be retained or if this is not possible the criteria used to determine that period (e.g. the Limitation Act 1980).

- c The agenda, papers that support the agenda and the minutes of a meeting shall not disclose or otherwise undermine confidential information or personal data without legal justification.
- d Councillors, staff, the Council's contractors and agents shall not disclose confidential information or personal data without legal justification.

11. Draft minutes

- a If the draft minutes of a preceding meeting have been served on councillors with the agenda to attend the meeting at which they are due to be approved for accuracy, they shall be taken as read.
- b There shall be no discussion about the draft minutes of a preceding meeting except in relation to their accuracy. A motion to correct an inaccuracy in the draft minutes shall be moved in accordance with Standing Order 9(a)(i) above.
- c The accuracy of draft minutes, including any amendment(s) made to them, shall be confirmed by resolution and shall be signed by the chairman of the meeting and stand as an accurate record of the meeting to which the minutes relate.
- d If the chairman of the meeting does not consider the minutes to be an accurate record of the meeting to which they relate, he shall sign the minutes and include a paragraph in the following terms or to the same effect:
    "The chairman of this meeting does not believe that the minutes of the meeting of the ( ) held on [date] in respect of ( ) were a correct record but his view was not upheld by the meeting and the minutes are confirmed as an accurate record of the proceedings."
- e Upon a resolution which confirms the accuracy of the minutes of a meeting, the draft minutes or recordings of the meeting for which approved minutes exist shall be destroyed.

12. Code of Conduct and dispensations

See also Standing Order 3(r) above.

- a All councillors shall observe the Code of Conduct adopted by the Council.
- b Councillors shall declare any interests covered in Appendix A of the Council's Code of Conduct that relate to agenda items at the start of each relevant item or whenever a relevant matter arises in the meeting unless they have been granted a Dispensation by the Council. They must immediately withdraw from the meeting for the duration of the consideration of that matter.
- c If a matter arises during a meeting which relates to an interest covered in Appendix B, the councillor shall remind the meeting of that interest as soon as it becomes relevant. If it is a 'sensitive interest' which has not already been disclosed to the Monitoring Officer, the councillor shall disclose that he has an interest but not the nature of it. He may participate in the discussion but may not vote.

- d Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to a financial interest of a friend, relative or close associate (other than a person described in Appendix A), the councillor shall declare that interest as soon as it becomes relevant. If it is a 'sensitive interest', the councillor shall disclose that he has an interest but not the nature of it. He may participate in the discussion but may not vote.
- e A councillor who is required to withdraw from the meeting as a consequence of declaring an interest under Standing Order 12(b) above may address the meeting as a member of the public as detailed in Standing Orders 3(d)-(f). This opportunity only arises at the start of the meeting, and does not apply if the interest is declared later.
- f Dispensation requests shall be in writing and submitted to the Proper Officer as soon as possible before the meeting, or failing that, at the start of the meeting for which the dispensation is required.
- g A dispensation request shall confirm:
  - i. the description and the nature of the disclosable pecuniary interest or other interest to which the request for the dispensation relates;
  - ii. whether the dispensation is required to participate at a meeting in a discussion only or a discussion and a vote;
  - iii. the date of the meeting or the period (not exceeding four years) for which the dispensation is sought; and
  - iv. an explanation as to why the dispensation is sought.
- h A decision as to whether to grant a dispensation shall be made by a meeting of the Council, and that decision is final. Dispensation requests shall be considered at the beginning of the meeting of the Council for which the dispensation is required.
- i A dispensation may be granted in accordance with Standing Order 12(g) above if having regard to all relevant circumstances the following applies:
  - a. without the dispensation the number of persons prohibited from participating in the particular business would be so great a proportion of the meeting transacting the business as to impede the transaction of the business, or
  - b. granting the dispensation is in the interests of persons living in the Council's area, or
  - c. it is otherwise appropriate to grant a dispensation.

13. Code of Conduct complaints

- a Upon notification by the District Council that it is dealing with a complaint that a councillor has breached the Council's Code of Conduct, the Proper Officer shall, subject to Standing Order 10 above, report this to the Council.
- b Where the notification in Standing Order 13(a) above relates to a complaint made by the Proper Officer, the Proper Officer shall notify the Chairman of this fact, and the Chairman shall nominate an appropriate person to assume the duties of the Proper Officer in relation to the complaint until it has been determined and the Council has agreed what action, if any, to take in accordance with Standing Order 13(d) below.
- c The Council may:
  - i. provide information or evidence where such disclosure is necessary to progress an investigation of the complaint or is required by law;
  - ii. seek information relevant to the complaint from the person or body with statutory responsibility for investigation of the matter;

- d Upon notification by the District Council that a councillor has breached the Council's Code of Conduct, the Council shall consider what, if any, action to take against him. Such action excludes disqualification or suspension from office.

14. Proper Officer

- a The Proper Officer shall be the Clerk or another person nominated by the Council to undertake the work of the Proper Officer when the Proper Officer is absent.
- b The Proper Officer shall:
- i. at least three clear days before a meeting of the Council serve on councillors a summons, by email, confirming the time, place and the agenda provided any such email contains the electronic signature and title of the Proper Officer.
See Standing Order 3(b) above for the meaning of 'clear days'.
  - ii. give public notice of the time, place and agenda at least three clear days before a meeting of the Council (provided that the public notice with agenda of an extraordinary meeting of the Council convened by councillors is signed by them);
See Standing Order 3(b) above for the meaning of 'clear days'.
  - iii. subject to Standing Order 8 above, include on the agenda all motions in the order received unless a councillor has given written notice at least 5 days before the meeting confirming his withdrawal of it;

23 Communicating with District and County or Unitary councillors

- a An invitation to attend a meeting of the Council shall be sent, together with the agenda, to the ward/division councillors of the District and County Council representing the area of the Council.
- b Unless the Council determines otherwise, a copy of each letter sent to the District and County Council shall be sent to the ward/division councillors representing the area of the Council.

24 Restrictions on councillor activities

- a. Unless authorised by a resolution, no councillor shall:
  - i. inspect any land and/or premises which the Council has a right or duty to inspect; or
  - ii. issue orders, instructions or directions.

25 Standing Orders generally

- a All or part of a Standing Order, except one that incorporates mandatory statutory requirements (shown herein in bold), may be suspended by resolution in relation to the consideration of an item on the agenda.
- b A motion to add to or vary or revoke one or more of the Council's Standing Orders, except one that incorporates mandatory statutory requirements, shall be proposed by a special motion, the written notice by at least four councillors to be given to the Proper Officer in accordance with Standing Order 8 above.
- c The Proper Officer shall provide a copy of the Council's Standing Orders to a councillor as soon as possible after he has delivered his acceptance of office form.
- d The decision of the chairman as to the application of these Standing Orders at that meeting shall be final.
